Plaintiff

C.A. No.: 1:13CV11512-RWZ

V.

HAPPY MADISON PRODUCTIONS, INC.,
COLUMBIA PICTURES INDUSTRIES, INC.
DELTA INTERNATIONAL MACHINERY CORP.
Defendants

STIPULATION

Columbia Pictures stipulates that with respect to the making of the movie "That's My Boy," it was the employer of Richard Houpert and Joseph Kearney; that Mr. Kearney owned the saw Mr. Houpert was using when he was injured but Columbia Pictures was responsible for the saw when it was being used by Columbia Pictures employees working on set construction; that Columbia Pictures, and not co-defendant Happy Madison, was responsible for the production of the movie and for workplace safety during set construction; and that Columbia Pictures through its insurer is defending and indemnifying Happy Madison in this case.
